

Are you a low-income four-year college student struggling to afford food?

You might be eligible for SNAP benefits!

Low-income college students who meet certain eligibility rules might be eligible for SNAP to help buy groceries - up to $192 per month for one person! Four-year college students (and two-year private college students) may be eligible if they:

- Have a job funded through Work-Study, or
- Get a MASSGrant in your financial aid, or
- Work, on average, at least 20 hours/week, or
- Are in school through Mass Rehab, or
- Have a child under 12, or meet other rules.

Supplemental Nutrition
Assistance
Program

Students with meal plans covering 2/3 of their meals are not eligible for SNAP. There are other rules students must meet to be eligible. Go to DTAConnect.com to apply for SNAP. For more information, visit: Masslegalservices.org/food4students