Course Revision Details

Please provide current and proposed versions

*The course is currently offered as an elective in the reading specialist program. This change would expand its offering to include special education majors. The content of the course will not change.

Rationale and expected outcomes of course change

*The course is relevant for all educators and the SPED designation would facilitate the registration of graduate students in a variety of special education programs.

Course Syllabus

A syllabus is required when there is a change that impacts 50% or more of the current course content and curriculum or there is a change to the format of the syllabus that is outside of the University guidelines for graduate syllabi.
