

All University Committee

Thursday, October 6, 2022

3:30 p.m.

Hammond 314

Committee Members in Attendance:

Franca Barricelli, Laura Bayless, Deborah Benes, Rachelle Dermer, Rala Diakite, Steven Fiedler, Ashley Lopez, Patricia Marshall, Juan Pablo Casilla Nicodemus, Kisha Tracy, Allison Turner, Amy Wehe

Committee Members Absent:

Elisabet Takehana, Paul Weizer

Guests in Attendance:

Barbara Cormier

Co-Chair Kisha Tracy called the meeting to order at 3:36 pm.

Summer Committee

Ashley Lopez was let known that she was volunteered as the student representative for the summer committee.

Acceptance of Minutes from End of Last Year's Committee:

AUC Meetings: May 11, 2022 and May 12, 2022

Motion: Deborah Benes Second: Juan Pablo Casilla Nicodemus

Friendly Amendments: For the May 11th meeting, Deborah Benes was absent so she needs to be added to the absentee list. Amendment to the May 12 minutes to add the registrar's notes.

Motion: Steve and Juan Pablo Casilla Nicodemus seconded.

Vote: 11/0/0

Vote for acceptance: 11/0/0

Approval of Minutes

AUC Meeting: September 13, 2022

Motion: Deborah Benes Second: Steve Fiedler

Vote: 12/0/0

Annual Report Acceptance

Motion: Patricia Marshall Second: Deborah Benes

Friendly amendment to Communications Media and English studies courses.

Add registrar's notes to the AUC summary.

Motion: Steve Fiedler and Juan Pablo Casilla Nicodemus seconded

Vote: 12/0/0

Vote on Discussion and Amendments: 12/0/0

Acceptance of Registrar's Notes

These will be attached to the minutes and agenda anytime. Can add a link to the AUC main page for the document.

Date of Submission	Subject	CRSE	Course Title	Change Type	Current	New
9/1/2022 21:12	GEOG	4900	Independent Study in Geography	Course Title & Description	TITLE: Independent Study in Geography DESCRIPTION: The Independent Study provides exceptional students with the opportunity to do research with faculty guidance in a subject or problems of geographic significance.	TITLE: Independent Study in Geoscience DESCRIPTION: Independent Study in Geoscience

9/19/2022 15:19	CJ	4960	Internship: Criminal Justice	Course Description	Internship is the structured academic experience that allows senior CJ students who have successfully met eligibility criteria, to integrate and apply the skills and theory of the discipline in a field-based setting. Such an experience helps the student develop an understanding of the effects of administrative practices and governing policies on the ability to carry out the responsibilities of their field placement. Students participate in Internship the supervision of qualified professionals in CJ organizations. In addition to the field experience, students participate in a weekly seminar held by the university’s supervising professor. Here, students share their experiences and develop a heightened awareness of their roles in the organizations in which they are functioning. Students must have completed their prerequisites at least one semester before taking Internship and must pre-register with the Field Placement office in the beginning of the semester prior to the semester before they plan to enter an agency, (for example, students planning a fall placement must have completed their prerequisites by the end of the previous fall semester and pre-register with the Instructor early in the previous spring.) Students must meet CJ Internship eligibility requirement as determined by the Department of Behavioral Sciences.	Internship is the structured academic experience that allows CJ students who have successfully met eligibility criteria to integrate and apply the skills and theory of the discipline in a field-based setting. Such an experience helps the student develop an understanding of the effects of administrative practices and governing policies on the ability to carry out the responsibilities of their field placement. Students participate under the supervision of qualified professionals in CJ organizations. In addition to the field experience, students participate in a monthly seminar held by the university’s supervising professor. Here, students share their experiences and develop a heightened awareness of their roles in the organizations in which they are functioning. Students must meet CJ Internship eligibility requirement as determined by the Department of Behavioral Sciences. Students work in their placement for 7.5 hours per week over a 15 week semester (3 credits toward the CJ Elective requirement).
--------------------	----	------	------------------------------	--------------------	---	--

9/19/2022 15:23	CJ	4970	Internship: Criminal Justice	Course Description	Internship is the structured academic experience that allows senior CJ students who have successfully met eligibility criteria, to integrate and apply the skills and theory of the discipline in a field-based setting. Such an experience helps the student develop an understanding of the effects of administrative practices and governing policies on the ability to carry out the responsibilities of their field placement. Students participate in Internship the supervision of qualified professionals in CJ organizations. In addition to the field experience, students participate in a weekly seminar held by the university’s supervising professor. Here, students share their experiences and develop a heightened awareness of their roles in the organizations in which they are functioning. Students must have completed their prerequisites at least one semester before taking Internship and must pre-register with the Field Placement office in the beginning of the semester prior to the semester before they plan to enter an agency, (for example, students planning a fall placement must have completed their prerequisites by the end of the previous fall semester and pre-register with the Instructor early in the previous spring.) Students must meet CJ Internship eligibility requirement as determined by the Department of Behavioral Sciences.	Internship is the structured academic experience that allows CJ students who have successfully met eligibility criteria to integrate and apply the skills and theory of the discipline in a field-based setting. Such an experience helps the student develop an understanding of the effects of administrative practices and governing policies on the ability to carry out the responsibilities of their field placement. Students participate under the supervision of qualified professionals in CJ organizations. In addition to the field experience, students participate in a monthly seminar held by the university’s supervising professor. Here, students share their experiences and develop a heightened awareness of their roles in the organizations in which they are functioning. Students must meet CJ Internship eligibility requirement as determined by the Department of Behavioral Sciences. Students work in their placement for 15 hours per week over a 15 week semester (6 credits toward the CJ Elective requirement).
--------------------	----	------	------------------------------	--------------------	---	---

9/19/2022 15:27	CJ	4980	Internship: Criminal Justice	Course Description	Internship is the structured academic experience that allows senior CJ students who have successfully met eligibility criteria, to integrate and apply the skills and theory of the discipline in a field-based setting. Such an experience helps the student develop an understanding of the effects of administrative practices and governing policies on the ability to carry out the responsibilities of their field placement. Students participate in Internship the supervision of qualified professionals in CJ organizations. In addition to the field experience, students participate in a weekly seminar held by the university’s supervising professor. Here, students share their experiences and develop a heightened awareness of their roles in the organizations in which they are functioning. Students must have completed their prerequisites at least one semester before taking Internship and must pre-register with the Field Placement office in the beginning of the semester prior to the semester before they plan to enter an agency, (for example, students planning a fall placement must have completed their prerequisites by the end of the previous fall semester and pre-register with the Instructor early in the previous spring.) Students must meet CJ Internship eligibility requirement as determined by the Department of Behavioral Sciences.	Internship is the structured academic experience that allows CJ students who have successfully met eligibility criteria to integrate and apply the skills and theory of the discipline in a field-based setting. Such an experience helps the student develop an understanding of the effects of administrative practices and governing policies on the ability to carry out the responsibilities of their field placement. Students participate under the supervision of qualified professionals in CJ organizations. In addition to the field experience, students participate in a monthly seminar held by the university’s supervising professor. Here, students share their experiences and develop a heightened awareness of their roles in the organizations in which they are functioning. Students must meet CJ Internship eligibility requirement as determined by the Department of Behavioral Sciences. Students work in their placement for 22.5 hours per week over a 15 week semester (9 credits total, 6 of which may go toward the CJ Elective requirement).
--------------------	----	------	------------------------------	--------------------	---	--

9/19/2022 15:31	CJ	4990	Internship: Criminal Justice	Course Description	Internship is the structured academic experience that allows senior CJ students who have successfully met eligibility criteria, to integrate and apply the skills and theory of the discipline in a field-based setting. Such an experience helps the student develop an understanding of the effects of administrative practices and governing policies on the ability to carry out the responsibilities of their field placement. Students participate in Internship the supervision of qualified professionals in CJ organizations. In addition to the field experience, students participate in a weekly seminar held by the university’s supervising professor. Here, students share their experiences and develop a heightened awareness of their roles in the organizations in which they are functioning. Students must have completed their prerequisites at least one semester before taking Internship and must pre-register with the Field Placement office in the beginning of the semester prior to the semester before they plan to enter an agency, (for example, students planning a fall placement must have completed their prerequisites by the end of the previous fall semester and pre-register with the Instructor early in the previous spring.) Students must meet CJ Internship eligibility requirement as determined by the Department of Behavioral Sciences.	Internship is the structured academic experience that allows CJ students who have successfully met eligibility criteria to integrate and apply the skills and theory of the discipline in a field-based setting. Such an experience helps the student develop an understanding of the effects of administrative practices and governing policies on the ability to carry out the responsibilities of their field placement. Students participate under the supervision of qualified professionals in CJ organizations. In addition to the field experience, students participate in a monthly seminar held by the university’s supervising professor. Here, students share their experiences and develop a heightened awareness of their roles in the organizations in which they are functioning. Students must meet CJ Internship eligibility requirement as determined by the Department of Behavioral Sciences. Students work in their placement for 30 hours per week over a 15 week semester (12 credits total, 6 of which may go toward the CJ Elective requirement).
--------------------	----	------	------------------------------	--------------------	---	---

Vote: 11/0/0

AUC Meetings Remote Option/ Modality for Virtual Guests

Amy Wehe moved for sponsors to meet remotely. Rala Diakite seconded

Discussion: Space issues was one committee member's concern. And discussion on remote option for guests

Vote: 1/11/0 (Y/N/O)

Adjournment

Motion: Juan Pablo Casilla Nicodemus

Second: Rala Diakite

Meeting adjourned at 4:15 p.m.

Vote: 12/0/0